

Abstract

P.S.M. Bearing Co., Ltd is an organisation that is predominantly involved in importing bearings. The company is an authorize distributor for Schaeffler group, where they are also acknowledged with their quality products by the international machinery industry. The corporation's main mission is to import and merchandise the largest volume of bearings in the country.

Since the business is always dealing with importing foreign goods to sell, they are required to create international documentation for importing products. To become a successful importer, one would need to go through countless steps and a large amount of paperwork. This is the reason why the author saw the significance in the process and the procedure of documentation making for importing products.

This project is a guidance for readers to understand about the requirements for importing products including the process and the documentation. It is a useful resource for those looking to educate themselves in the field.

Keywords: import documentation, import product

