I would like to express my deepest gratitude to my family members, especially my father, mother and younger sister for their continuous support in term of energy to move on with life and education after I have faced the worst period of my life. Their support gave me strength to continue my studies, without this support I would not come to where I am today.

I would also like to express my heartfelt thank you to my Independent study advisor, Dr. Vijit Supinit, Dean of MBA program at Graduate School of Business, Siam University, his ability and willingness to mentor and guide me through during my ups and downs while I was on course with this research. I feel without his encouragement for me to get this Independent Studies done, I would not complete this research as I was doing it during the downturn of life. The knowledge and kind words received from him during the journey at Siam University are greatly appreciated and wouldn't be forgotten.

I would also like to thanks all teachers and friends who I have met at IMBA program during the journey of my education at Siam University. Their works and kindness helped to make me feel enjoyable and look at things on positive side. I have learned and earned a lot from them.

Lastly, I would also like to pass heartfelt thanks to Ms. Apple Suporn Lieotrakoonsuk, who unfortunately not here to see my success in this research paper, but during the course of journey, while she was present in my life, she had given me all the support needed to get on and complete this research. Her kind words have had helped me to push myself to get this research done and to get to the next level of Education.
