

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

I would like to express my sincere gratitude towards my advisor Dr.VijitSupinit(former governor of the Bank of Thailand and present dean of our international MBA program at SIAM University) for his continuous support, guidance and immense knowledge of my independent study.

Besides my advisor, I would like to thankDuangkamolCharuskay (training manager in Novotel Platinum Bangkok) and other participants in my survey, who provided information and shared their precious time during the process of interviewing.

Furthermore, I thank my fellow classmates and other faculty members of Siam University for their precious support and without that it would not be possible to work on this study with research work.

Last but not the least; I am also thankful to my parents for supporting me spiritually, intellectually and financially throughout making this study.

Thank you,

Arnab Bose
