

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

This independent study could not be successfully conducted without valuable assistance from various people. Therefore, I would like to express my sincere thanks and gratitude to my adviser, Dr. Julius Owuor Ndegwa for his tremendous assistance in conducting this research, and Miss Manissa Phomjinda who have been very busy helping this research in everything, for her guides, helping to translate Thai articles into English, and comments in some part of this research.

Many others also helped, and I want to especially thank the Dean of Master of Business Administration, Dr. Vijit Supinit who guided throughout the course and in various circumstances of this research. Moreover, my endless gratitude would be extended to Father Professor Dr. KL Dhammajoti who has helped, encouraged and taking care of my entire Education since my childhood and while studying MBA program at Siam University. Importantly, my deep gratitude and thanks go to respondents of Thai Commerce Department, International Promotion Department Bureau and Arpana export-import Group who sacrificed their valuable time to answer the questions during the interviews; and also my assistants to get answers for questionnaires of this research in Dhaka, without whom it would not be completed.

Finally, I would like to dedicate to my parents late Sudhir Barua and late Ruby Barua for the Happiness. At the end not the least but also I would like to extend thanks to Mr. Aung Shing Marma, Mr. Vuthy Choutha for their spirits, encouragements in various aspect of this research and while I am enrolling the MBA course at Siam University, Bangkok.

Siam University
Bangkok, Thailand

Mr. Sree Mattananda Sraman
November 2012