

ABSTRACT

Research Title : The Study of Human Resource Development of Southeast Asia
University To Improve Working Performance
 Researcher : Miss Nattanicha Raksawong
 Degree : Master of Business Administration
 Major : Human Resources Management
 Advisor :
 (Chitavorn Leelapalin, Ph.D.)
14 / JAN / 2016.....

The purpose of this research is to study the development 4 aspects. University of South-East Asia. As well as to survey the opinions about the development of University of South-East Asia. In order to enhance the efficiency of work. As well as comparing the opinions on the development of the University by gender, age, education level, position line. And experience working within the university students. The personnel of the university teacher 50 line of cases. And the agent of 50 cases include 100 lists data from questionnaires and statistics include frequency. Percentage, mean and standard deviation for the comparison of the use t-test statistics and analysis of variance. (One-Way Analysis of Variance) results showed that the personnel of the university is more female than male, most 31-40 years. With a master's degree. The line of a staff and teachers. Work experience with in the University 10 years. The personnel of the University. Most opinions in the technology, followed by the research and education, and the opinions is minimal. The training.

The personnel of the University of East Asia with age and working experience in South-East Asia Opinions on the development of university personnel of different levels. 05 significant factors of sex education. And the position line. Opinions on the development of the university is no different.

Development of University of South-East Asia. To improve efficiency, including training, education, the study tour, technology and research. Related to the opinions of the personnel of the University at significant level. 05.

Development of University of South-East Asia. In order to enhance the efficiency of work. The personnel of the University of South-East Asia. Focus on the factors of technology and research. Therefore, the management of the University of South-East Asia. Should develop technology to modern and have enough with the personnel of University, also should manage to knowledge about the techniques of writing research proposals to knowledge about writing research reports. With the personnel of University of South-East Asia. This is to strengthen and develop the personnel of the University of South-East Asia.