

Acknowledgement

At the University of Siam this year and a half learning career to thank our mentor Zhang Shunjie, during this period of time to carefully know and care to our students, not teachers advice we will not progress so fast, you are the best I have ever seen a teacher, as an ordinary student I listen to each a class like you enjoy the life of rich and colorful good feast. You are not only a good tutor in our lives, but also a good teacher in our study. You are the most patient and kind-hearted of the teachers I have ever seen. You are one of the few teachers of most teachers who pay attention to appearance and popularity. Every day you can see your gentle, lovely smiling face, and you can see that you are very approachable and very optimistic and attentive to life. So, I think you have this point let us learn that life is rich and colorful, we should always continue a carefully optimistic heart to face life, when you really to experience life, you will feel that life is waiting for you to enjoy it, embrace it, kiss it.
